

The FCC should NOT compel Internet and VOIP providers to open their networks to law enforcement agencies